

POLE VAULT IS FEATURE OF DAY

Intercollegiate Prelims Held at Philadelphia.

PARKER OUTVAULTS BABCOCK

Michigan College Pushing Pennsylvania and Yale Hard for First Place—Great Surprise of Day Was the Qualifying of Twelve Men from Princeton University.

Philadelphia, May 27.—Four and a half hours of pole vaulting followed the proceedings in the first day of the intercollegiate track and field championships at Franklin Field to-day. The vaulters started in at 3 o'clock before any other events began, and were still at it at 7 o'clock. The fight between Ted Babcock of Columbia, and Harry Parker of Pennsylvania, to see who should be the first man to qualify in the event, was decided at 7:20 o'clock, when, after repeated raising and lowering of the bar, Parker cleared at 11 feet 9 inches and Babcock didn't.

As a result of the day's work, the Pennsylvania chances for winning the meet do not appear to the dopesters to be so bright. All fell down hard on the day, neither Babcock nor Campbell qualifying. Harvard did about as well as the Crimson expected, but Pennsylvania's supposed superiority in the dashes has been seriously threatened. Ralph Craig, of Michigan, qualified so impressively in the 100 and 200 yard races that his work, together with that of George Garner, of Harvard, in the 100-yard race, makes it evident that Ramsdell and Minder, of Pennsylvania, have their work cut out for them. In fact, Cornell's position is reported at the end of the day to have fared Yale and Pennsylvania about twenty-three points apiece, Harvard eighteen, and Michigan a strong likelihood of twenty-five.

Pennsylvania folks, however, are pretty well satisfied. They were most afraid of Yale, and when Campbell went out at five feet ten inches in the high jump, and in the 100-yard race, they were in the half mile, the Red and Blue dismissed its fears of the Blue. Princeton was easily the surprise of the day. The Tigers qualified twelve men, and some of them are bound to be heard from to-morrow. Whitley and Frantz got in the half mile and Sawyer and Black placed in the quarter mile. Cooke and Edith Jessup will be in the 100-yard dash, but neither of them is expected to win. The Tigers are in the hammer throw, having qualified second and third, respectively. Dwight made a place in the high hurdles. He and Dusenberry are still in the running in the low hurdles. The way the colleges qualified their men was: Pennsylvania, 15; Princeton, 12; Michigan, 4; Amherst, 4; Columbia, 3; Syracuse and Wesleyan, 2 each; and Harvard, Bowdoin, Colgate, Rutgers, Dartmouth, and New York, one each.

LEWIS IS KNOCKED OUT.

Stanley Ketchell Hangs Sleep Punch on Willie's Jaw.

New York, May 27.—Willie Lewis, the local welter-weight, who made a reputation as a fighter by whipping second and third raters in France and England, was knocked out cold in the second round by Stanley Ketchell, the middle-weight champion, at the National Sporting Club, in West Forty-fourth street, to-night.

After a tame first round, in which neither man exerted himself, Ketchell began to fight in earnest. Lewis was a pigmy in his hands. He landed a couple of left-hand jabs as Ketchell rushed, but that was the best he could do. Ketchell almost knocked the wind out of him with a body punch, and then at close quarters he hung a fearful right hook on the chin that sent Lewis into dream-land.

ARRIVE FOR TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Philadelphia Team at Chevy Chase for Intercity Matches.

With one of the strongest teams which the city has ever turned out, Philadelphia comes to Washington to-day to meet the Chevy Chase Club aggregation in the first of the intercity matches. Of the players who will uphold the honor of the city are Wallace Johnson and L. J. James, both seen in the invitation tournament a week ago, and both known as hard men to beat.

Chairman Hills, of the local committee, up to a late hour last night had not definitely decided upon the team to represent Washington, owing to the uncertainty of whether two of the best men, the Grosvenor brothers, will be able to be present. The two Doyles are sure to be picked, and the remaining members will be selected from Delf, Gordon, Calk, and Hills.

The Chevy Chase courts are now in better shape than ever before, and fast play is looked for. With fair weather, a large gallery should have already been arranged for.

MIDDLE ATLANTICS HELDOVER

Bachelors' Tourney Events Played Off Next Week.

Semi-finals Reached in Contests of Yesterday—Miss Turle Continues a Winner.

The Middle Atlantic championships had their inning yesterday at the courts of the Bachelors' Club, and some really good tennis was the result. Still unfinished, several events were put over until next week, as the first of the intercity matches open to-day at the Chevy Chase Club.

In men's singles Colton came out the better of Holtzman after three long and hard contested sets, 6-3, 4-6, and 6-1. Colton showed much improvement in form over his appearance at Chevy Chase. He has a swift, sure return and a difficult serve, both of which proved effective in the invitation tournament because of his early tiring. Gore finally met his Waterloo in Gordon, and the youngster won in 6-3, 7-5.

Several events in the schedule allotted to the women were run off, and good, consistent tennis was the marked feature of each contest. Miss Baker defeated Miss Krik, after losing the first set, though it took two sets, with scores of 7-5 and 6-4, to do it. Miss Turle took two contests rather easily, defeating Miss Bryan, 6-0, 8-6, and Miss Smith, 6-0, 6-1.

Summary of the matches played yesterday follows:
Men's singles—Colton defeated Holtzman, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1; Gore defeated Gordon, 6-3, 7-5; Baker defeated Krik, 7-5, 6-4; Miss Turle defeated Miss Doolittle, 6-0, 8-6; Miss Turle defeated Miss Krik, 6-0, 8-6; Mixed doubles—Miss Turle and Mr. Doyle defeated Miss Krik and Mr. Fisher, 6-3, 6-1; Men's doubles—Gore and W. Hackett defeated Fisher and McKe, 6-3, 4-6, 7-5.

Gaynor Appoints C. J. Driscoll to Remunerative Position.

New York, May 27.—Mayor Gaynor to-day appointed as chief of the bureau of weights and measures in his office, Clement J. Driscoll, of 9 Oliver street, only a few minutes before announcing the appointment Mayor Gaynor had put a resolution through the board of estimate raising the salary of the position from $2,500 to $3,000.

Mr. Driscoll, or was, a Hearst man. He has been assigned since the first of the year to cover the city hall as reporter for the Evening Journal. Formerly he was city editor of the same paper for a time and later its advertising manager. Mayor Gaynor appointed Mr. Driscoll a few days ago to the congestion commission, an honorary place. Mr. Driscoll is president of the East Side Pure Milk League and chairman of the Local School Board's Association.

Others in the cast were Lucius Randolph, Harry Moss, Hoyman Winne, Cecil Hartley, Nellie Pollard, Ruth Vinoberg, Fred Price, Norval Tabler, Francis Obel, Joseph Holland, William Desmond, Albert Archibald, James Burrows, Jack Brandt, Edward Kentz, Joe Bessie, Cecelia Anna, Mabel McGrath, Bessie Price, Mabel Martin, Blanche Miller, Elizabeth Lauman, Fannie Stevens, Marion Quigley, Irene Warren, Alice Carter, Frances Quigley, Jennie Miller, Lottie Price, and Minnie Van Castle.

BLAME IT ON THE COMET.

This Rooster Crows, but Lays an Egg Every Day.

Cairo, Va., May 27.—Mrs. Viola Marshall has a rooster among her flock of chickens who lays an egg regularly every day. She bought this rooster under the impression that it was a hen, but soon discovered a handsome comb and wattles, and spurs an inch and a half in length, and this rooster egg layer, which can crow just like any good respectable cock should crow in every way, is a perfectly formed rooster. The curiosity has been seen by scores of doubting Thomases who come away convinced.

BOYS GALLOP HERE FROM OKLAHOMA

Youngsters on Way to Meet Col. Roosevelt.

BOTH UNDER TEN YEARS OLD

Sons of "Jack" Abernathy, United States Marshal, Have Ridden Entire Distance on Horseback in Six Weeks—Come Down Pennsylvania Avenue Wearing Top Boots.

Louis and Temple Abernathy, aged nine and six years, who were sent by their father, Jack Abernathy, Col. Roosevelt's friend and United States marshal in Oklahoma, on horseback to meet Col. Roosevelt on his arrival in New York, reached here last night.

They left their home, in Frederick, Okla., about six weeks ago, and have ridden the entire distance on horseback. They will spend a couple of days here and then remount and go to New York, stopping in Philadelphia for a day or two. They have made the trip alone.

Ridden by Roosevelt.

Louis rides Sam, a sixteen-year-old horse, which was ridden by Col. Roosevelt in Oklahoma five years ago on one of his memorable hunting expeditions with doughty Jack Abernathy. His little brother Temple rides Wylie Haines, a seven-year-old horse. They are both sturdy little fellows, red-checked, round-faced, and short and stocky, like their father.

Both are great admirers of Col. Roosevelt, and since leaving their home at Frederick, Okla., nearly six weeks ago, have covered more than 2,000 miles. They arrived from Frederick, Md., where they left yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, and reached here at 10 o'clock last night. They created quite a sensation as they rode down Pennsylvania avenue, attired in top boots, gray felt hats, and blue shirts, with blanket attached to the saddle. On their hats they wore the special police officer badge which was given to them by the chief of police of Dayton, Ohio.

On Way to New York.

"We're on our way to New York to meet Col. Roosevelt," said Louis Abernathy, who, although only six years old, is a little brother sleeping soundly alongside of him. Insisted on seeing callers. "Col. Roosevelt is a fine fellow, and we think quite a lot of him in Oklahoma. We like him much in Oklahoma. He always comes to hunt with us when we ask him."

"What are you going to say to Col. Roosevelt when you meet him in New York?" "Shake hands with him," said young Abernathy. "I guess I'll say something. I don't know yet what I will say. There's lots of time to think about that. Never jump a bridge until you come to it."

The two little men will call on President Taft to-day, and said they would take the car to the White House; as their father had told them to take the car. Louis had fully made up his mind to say something to President Taft, but had not yet decided what it would be.

Asked for Breakfast.

When they arrived at the Raleigh, Louis demanded a room from which they could see the Washington Monument, and in the next breath asked Chief Clerk Collins if the hotel served breakfast. Being assured that such was the case, the Abernathys took seats in the dining-room and became rather impatient after waiting about five minutes, repeatedly wanting to know when the breakfast would be served.

Louis is much interested in the modus operandi of the Weather Bureau, and is curious to see the instruments which tell the weather sharps whether it will rain or shine. The youngsters are also anxious to know all about the mysteries of wireless telegraphy.

DENIES TRANSMUTING POWER

Dr. Lange Claims, However, to Have Found Valuable Process.

Can Produce Chloride of Silver at Much Less Than It Is Now Manufactured.

Scranton, Pa., May 27.—Dr. Frederick W. Lange, whose reported discovery of a method to transmute base metal into silver and gold has set the world talking, to-day gave out a signed statement relative to his claim, which reads:

"I do not claim the power of transmuting base metal into precious metals. But I do claim positively to get twice the quantity of nitrates and chlorides from a matrix of silver that has been gotten by the chemical processes generally used."

J. U. Wagner, one of the faculty of the Scranton High School, and a cousin of Dr. Lange, remarked that the doctor has been pursuing his tests with a view of producing iron that will not corrode, doing it with his silver process. This, according to Prof. Wagner, would revolutionize electric railway traffic and automobile construction, as it would pave the way to storage batteries.

This was confirmed by Dr. Lange during the day.

"If my process can be used," he said, "in making dry cell batteries for automobiles, hundreds of the industrial arts will be affected. Chloride of silver, for instance, sells at retail for 75 cents an ounce. I am able to produce it for considerably less than the wholesale rates and have actually received $5 a pound for it with an offer from the dealer to take car loads at that price."

"I do not feel disposed at this time to give the details of my discovery, especially as I expect to apply for patents on the processes."

LAMP POST JOURNEY'S END FOR CHINESE MOTORCYCLIST

Lee Wah Took a Motorcycle Ride Yesterday Afternoon, which was Stopped at Fourth and M Streets by a Lamp Post.

The lamp post was wrecked and the motorcycle was wrecked, but Lee Wah made his escape, and motorcycling in the future will be a dead art with him. "No good!"

This is his opinion of motorcycling. He lives at 400 R street northwest, where he gave out the following interview last night.

"Cottonmouth mow at cotton cat-z-z-z. Me no like."

The wreck is seven blocks from the Wah home on a straight line. If Wah got that far on his first motorcycle trip without getting killed the police estimate he would make a good rider in 25,000 years.

PATTEN STILL SELLING.

More Wheat and Cotton Being Unloaded in Chicago Market.

Chicago, May 27.—While admitting to-day that he had sold practically all his wheat and explaining why he had done so, reports were received from New York that James A. Patten was unloading his cotton holdings. Heavy selling of cotton options on the cotton exchange caused the reports that Patten was getting out, followed by other Chicago bulls. The July option in cotton, which was the most active in the early New York trading, declined more than 20 cents on the bale from the closing price yesterday, selling down to $14.75.

Meantime, wheat in Chicago continued in its slump. September wheat, which Patten was said to be the most deeply interested, dropped from a closing price of 99 cents yesterday to 91.1-8 cents to-day.

May, which slumped nearly 6 cents yesterday, closing at $1.05, touched a low price of $1.02, and July went to 92 1/2 cents from a close of 94 1/2 cents yesterday.

While there were some wild moments when the market was breaking, the pit was quieter than yesterday, when one of the most sensational slumps in years came.

Armour & Co., which has led the victorious bears, was the chief seller to-day. Foreigners sold liberally, but generally at a loss. The buying was scattered.

KILLED IN IRISH RIOT.

Follower of Redmond Victim in Street Clash at Newmarket.

Cork, Ireland, May 27.—The followers of John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, and William O'Brien, leader of the United Irish League, who have been using shillaloes on each others' heads for several days during meetings in this county, had the most serious scuffle yet at Newmarket, a small town in this county.

Newmarket is an O'Brien stronghold, and when the latter's followers heard that Redmond was to hold a meeting there they decided to break it up. The fighting began early in the morning and continued throughout the day.

It culminated in a fierce riot at night. Bottles, stones, and revolvers were used. There was much incendiarism, and the main street of the town at one time was ablaze. The din was terrific, with the cracking of revolvers, the smashing of windows, and fierce party cries.

One Redmond follower was killed and several others injured. A number of arrests were made.

SUGAR MEN PLEAD GUILTY

Three of the Defendants with Heike Admit Part in Fraud.

New York, May 27.—Three of Charles R. Heike's co-defendants in the trial in the United States Circuit Court arising out of the sugar frauds withdrew the pleas they had made and pleaded guilty to-day at the conclusion of the prosecution of the government's case against the six defendants.

Harry H. Walker, formerly an assistant superintendent on the dock of the Williams refinery; Jean N. Voelker, and James F. Halligan, the last two being checkers for the company, were the men who threw themselves on the mercy of the court.

The pleading of guilty by these three defendants did not come as a great surprise as there have been rumors that such a movement was contemplated for several days.

The change of pleas was made after Judge Martin had excused the jury until next Tuesday, the government having rested, hence the jury did not hear what was said in court when Mr. Cochran arose and announced in behalf of the three men that they desired to plead guilty to the count of conspiracy in the indictment against them if it was agreeable to Prosecutor Stimson. This did not seem agreeable to Mr. Stimson, so Mr. Cochran then said:

"Very well, then, we plead guilty to the whole indictment."

Judge Martin accepted the plea and ordered the three men in the custody of the trial of the other defendants, when they will be sentenced.

Voelker, one of the men who pleaded guilty, has been a pathetic figure in the court room during the trial, as he is very ill and left a sick bed. His hair is snow white and he cannot walk without an attendant. He is now in court when Mr. Cochran, despite the fact that they held minor jobs and worked on the docks, have sat through the trial, along side of Heike, the secretary of the company, and Gerbracht and Rendenbark, the general manager and cashier of the big refinery.

Walker is married and has eight children. He died in the eve, after rubbing. Dash and water in them.

BRIDE-TO-BE KILLED.

Her Maid of Honor Also Victim of Auto Accident.

Logan, Ohio, May 27.—A pretty young girl, who was to have become a bride in less than a week, and her maid of honor were instantly killed, and the best man and the matron of honor were seriously injured early to-day after a mid-night dinner given by the bridegroom-to-be, when an automobile in which the four were driving leaped over a fifteen-foot embankment, turning completely over.

Miss Lily Wright, who was to wed Fred Ambrose, of Union Furnace, next Wednesday, together with Miss Florrie Newman, Will Snyder, and Mrs. Jessie Goss, matron of honor, drove to the fiancé's home for a late dinner. There were a number of guests, and the company did not break up until long after midnight. The four then started home in the automobile.

Snyder lost his bearings and drove the car straight over a high embankment. The two young women clung to their seats and were crushed to death instantly beneath the car. Snyder and Mrs. Goss were hurled through the air fifty feet. He is believed to be fatally injured.
